

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Our Wounded-A life time of Sacrifice They held the line until they no longer could, then passed it on to a brother. The line held...

A mother spends every weekend in the hospital next to her son; another mother flies thousands of miles to his bedside and stays months next to her Wounded Hero. Some will never see again, others won't walk, some appear untouched, but Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) plays havoc with their lives.

It is the mission of this foundation not just to help these families financially but to let them know we recognize and appreciate the burden they carry and the price that they have paid in service to Our Country and, at the same time to create a vehicle for all of us to be of service to these Heroes and those they leave behind.

In their own words:

"There are no words to let you know how much I appreciate what you have done for my family and me. This has been a very difficult time. Sometimes it feels as if the whole world is crumbling around us. After what you and your group have done it has made me realize that all humanity is not lost. There are still good people regardless of all the tragedy we are faced with every day." - Surviving Spouse of a victim of the WTC - Sept. 11, 2001

"I am a beneficiary! I am so entirely grateful for 911's monthly check. It has allowed me to put my daughter in preschool. Without it she could not go. I hate to admit how I look forward to each new month so there is a little (much needed) money to help care for my daughter." - Surviving Spouse of Operation Iraqi Freedom May 19, 2004

"I am also a military widow and I am extremely grateful to Mike and everyone with the 9-11 HelpAmerica Foundation. There are no hidden agenda's...Everyone with the organization simply cares about our fallen and wounded heroes and their families. They simply want to help and show their support for our troops and their families."
